BATTLE HYMN OF THE JENKINS

(TUNE: "Battle Hymn of the Republic.")

The ancient Clan of Jenkins raised their standards to the sky;
They held their name in honor and their aims were ever high;
They always did their duty and were not afraid to die.
The clan goes marching on!

CHORUS: Glory to the Tribe of Jenkins;
Virile, worthy, brave and loyal!
Let us sing "Perge sed Cau-te!"
The clan goes marching on!

Mae-narch, Richard, John and Seth were fathers of our clan;
Posterity of David and Benja-min never ran.
Joseph was quite virile, Thomas was a sturdy man.
The clan goes marching on!

Our fathers dwelt in England, Scotland, Ireland and in Wales;
Where English tongue is spoken now the Jenkins name prevails.
How could the nations but advance when Jenkins never fails!
The clan goes marching on!

Richard was in Parliament—he was among the peers;
Thomas was High Sheriff—of his foes he had no fears;
Henry Jenkins lived a hundred-nine-and-sixty years.
The clan goes marching on!

John was a guide to Washington and with him at Yorktown;
With famous men of Georgia, Charlie's name is written down;
Albert was in Congress and, in Dixie, of renown.
The clan goes marching on!

The Jenkins Clan is mighty with a hundred thousand strong;
In Seventy-six, four hundred Jenkins fought to right a wrong.
Seven towns bear Jenkins name. Sure, let us sing that song—
The clan goes marching on!

When danger threatened country or a battle to be won,
Or righteous causes need defenders or work to be done,
Brave Jenkins were right there, and never did a Jenkins run.
The clan goes marching on!

The Jenkins sons have courage any task or foe to face;
The Jenkins girls are lovely with their beauty, charm and grace;
The Jenkins leaven is a blessing to the human race.
The clan goes marching on!

COAT OF ARMS - INTRODUCTION

THE JENKINS FAMILY AND ITS COAT OF ARMS

MOTTO: "Perge sed caute"
(Go on, but cautiously)

ARMS: Per pale azure and sable, three fleur de lis or.

CREST: A battle-axe, handled or, headed proper.

This old family name is frequently found in Wales, as well as in England, and one reference consulted states that the family is of Flemish origin, originally being known as Jonkin, meaning son of John.

It is noted that the name Jonkin is listed on the Assize rolls of Cheshire for the year 1288, but by the early fourteenth century the name appears as Jenkins, for a Richard Jenkins is listed on the Subsidy Rolls of Somerset for the year 1327.

As with all very old families, it is impossible to trace the countless branches that became established over the centuries. However, these are typical of those early designs with which warriors decorated their shields to identify themselves in battle. The fleur de lis may suggest a French influence and it is probable that the projenitor of the family in Britain came during the Norman Invasion in 1066.

History pays just tribute to the many persons bearing this old distinguished family name who attained distinction during the past thousand years, for many descendants of this family have occupied the highest positions in England, as well as Wales.

Perhaps the first person bearing the Jenkins family name to settle in the New World, was John Jenkins, who came to America from Wales in 1642 and settled in Virginia. He was a colonel in the State Militia and held several public offices. He later became the Governor of North Carolina.

Today, persons bearing this proud old family name are to be found in almost every section of this country and they are well represented in the arts, sciences and professions, as well as in the world of commerce.

INTRODUCTION

Many years of research have gone into the compilation of this history of the Jenkins Family of Chatham County, N.C. and their ancestors from Virginia. A few words about this history are in order at this time. Any document that has been transcribed and typed has been done so word for word; therefore, words and punctuations are the same as they appeared in the original document. Pictures used are often copies of very old photographs and may not be very clear. In most cases, the originals are not any better.

This history is not the work of any one person but the result of several persons working together to reach a common goal. It is hoped that it will be a treasured addition to your library and an aid to future family research.

The cooperation and help of the family in providing information has been the backbone of this history. Much credit is also due to Nettie Jenkins Bowen, now deceased, who wrote the book, THE JENKINS FAMILY OF VIRGINIA & NORTH CAROLINA. Without the assistance of her book, this history would have taken much longer to write. Thanks is also due to Dr. C. Nash Herndon for his assistance in providing information about the Herndon family found in Chapter VII. The patience and enthusiastic assistance of Fleet Reddish, Register of Deeds in Chatham County, and her fine staff in helping locate the information needed is greatly appreciated. Gerald Oldham has been especially helpful and given hours of his own time gathering information and interviewing people either for me or introducing me to them.

The progenitor of our Jenkins family is William Jenkins who was born about 1675 and died in 1720 in Virginia. He lived in what was then called Rappahannock County and what is presently called Richmond County, Va. on the Rappahannock Creek near the Rappahannock River. This was part of an area originally referred to as Northern Neck.

Information about our direct ancestors and their families will be included in the Chapters that follow:

CHAPTER II

HARMAN AND MARTHA SKELDERMAN

Around 1700, William Jenkins married Elizabeth Skelderman, the daughter of Harman and Martha Skelderman. Born about 1638, Harman Skelderman is thought to have been a Dutch immigrant. He filed for naturalization in Charles "Cittie" County, Va. on 20 Sep 1671.

On 11 Jul 1666, Harman received a grant of land from the crown containing 800 acres. Some of this land made its way into the Jenkins family by way of Harman's daughter, Elizabeth who married William Jenkins. Elizabeth had two sisters, Ann who married Henry Haws, and Mary who married Lawrence Barker. Both sisters married a second time with Ann marrying a man named Cummings and Mary marrying a man named Grimestone.

There is a Susanna Harman listed in Charles City County in 1658 (Ref: Va. Colonial Abstracts Vol. II) and also a Susanna Harman witnessed Harman's will. It is quite possible that Harman Skelderman's mother was named Susanna Harman.

We know that Harman's wife was named Martha because she released her Dower Rights in the following Deed:

A survey made in 1677 shows the location of a house and barn on the portion of land that came to William Jenkins through his wife Elizabeth. (Ref: Vol. 1, p. 48, Richmond Co., Va.) Their neighbors were: William Lane, George Morris, Patrick Norton, William Moss, William Thomas, Edmund Crask, John Crask, John Morton, James Orchard, Lawrence Barker, Henry Haws, Francis Jordan, William Jordan, Walter Davis, Edward Davis, Alvin Mountjoy, Thomas Grimestone, John Newman, and John Right. Some of the descendants of his neighbors intermarried with the descendants of William Jenkins. Highway #360 from Tappahannock to Warsaw, Virginia now goes through the historic area. Following is a copy of that survey map.

Harman Skelderman died after March 1683 and before February 1684 as proven by his will which follows:

CHAPTER III

WILLIAM AND ELIZABETH S. JENKINS

We do not know where William Jenkins was born or who his parents were at this time. We do know that he was in Richmond County, Virginia. He settled between the Rappahannock and the Potomac Rivers on Rappahannock Creek. It is conjectured he was born about 1675. He may have been related to the first Governor of North Carolina, John Jenkins, but very little is known about North Carolina's first Governor prior to his taking office.

William Jenkins married Elizabeth Skelderman, the daughter of Harman and Martha Skelderman probably around 1698. (Ref: Old Rappa. County Deed, Skelderman to Norton, Reel 5, pages 148 & 149). On 3 Nov 1719, William Jenkins gave 50 acres of land to his daughter, Martha, and her husband Walter Davis. (Ref: Richmond County Deed Book 7, page 454) On 23 Feb 1740, Walter Davis sells the same piece of property to Martha's brother, Mansfield Jenkins. The Deed states that he is the sole heir of Martha and the land descended to him. (Ref: Deed Book 9, page 645 Richmond County, Va.)

William Jenkins died about 1714 as evidenced by an Inventory of his estate that was recorded 7 Dec 1720 (Ref: Richmond County Will Book 4, page 159.) The order to appraise his Estate was given in Richmond County Court on 3 Aug 1720. The following is known as the Will of William Jenkins but is really his Estate Division.

Rappa. Creek. Surveyed the 12th of October 1714 per Chas Barber, Surveyor Richmond County.

CHAPTER IV

MANSFIELD AND PATIENCE JENKINS

Mansfield was our next in line ancestor. He was the second oldest son of William and Elizabeth and was born about 1708 and died in 1755. We do not know the last name of his wife, Patience, but they married about 1732 and were the parents of nine children. Proof that Patience was the wife of Mansfield can be found in a Deed from the Richmond County, Va. Deed Book number 11, page 282 that records an exchange of land between Dr. William Flood and Mansfield Jenkins. In this deed, Patience relinquishes her dower rights to the land. Following is the will of Mansfield Jenkins:

WILL OF MANSFIELD JENKINS

Note that Mansfield's wife, Patience, was pregnant at the time of the writing of the will. The child born was named Molly and that is verified by the following record of a Deed of Gift from Patience Jenkins and her children Thomas, James, William, Jesse and Jeremiah to Molly Jenkins and the deed states that Molly was born after her father's death. You will notice that John Jenkins, the oldest son of Mansfield, did not sign this Deed of Gift. Obviously, it was because he had already left for Orange County, N.C.

"To All whom it may concern...Know ye that whereas Molly Jenkins was born after the decrease of her father Mansfield Jenkins by which she hath not enjoyed an equal proportion of her said father's estate...We the Subscribing joint heirs of the said Mansfield Jenkins hath given and granted to the said Molly Jenkins & to her heirs and assigns forever, a negro boy named Will, part of the Estate of the said deceased, to the only proper use & behoof of the said Molly Jenkins her heirs and assigns. Proved May Court 1778...John House

It is also interesting to note that Patience, John Jenkins and his wife Mary, sold 349 acres of land in Richmond County in 1763. This could be the time at which Patience and her children moved to Bute County, N.C.

INDENTURE: PATIENCE JENKINS, JOHN JENKINS & WIFE MARY SELL LAND

Source: Richmond County, Va. Deeds Vol. 12 Pg. 476-477

"Patience Jenkins, John Jenkins, and wife Mary, sold 349 acres, 'Bounded upon the main Branch of Rappahannock Creek, the lands of William Pierce, Thomas Lyne, John Turbyville, John Gordon, Zacharish White...Said parcel of land was by the last Will and Testament of Mansfield Jenkins, given unto the said Patience his wife, During her natural life, and after her decease unto his sons the said John Jenkins--------and Mansfield Jenkins, and the said Mansfield the son Dying without issue, the right of his part descended unto the said John Jenkins.' etc."

Patience Jenkins made her will in Bute County, N.C. 17 Oct 1778. In her will she stipulates that the remainder of money after her just debts are paid and property other than the land and plantation that she left to her son Thomas be equally divided between her eight children. Mansfield had already died. It is also interesting to note that in May before she made her will, she saw to it that her late husband's wishes concerning his unborn child, Molly, were carried out. Patience died between October 1778 and August 1780.

For a detailed account of the descendants of Mansfield and Patience Jenkins, with the exception of our ancestor John Jenkins, refer to the excellent book by Nettie Jenkins Bowen, THE JENKINS FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA, published by Todd Services, Raleigh, N. C. This book can be found in the North Carolina Archives located in Raleigh and also in several local libraries. Nettie Jenkins Bowen descended from James "Jimmy" Jenkins, the third eldest child of Mansfield and Patience Jenkins and a brother to our ancestor John Jenkins.

CHAPTER V

JOHN AND MARY JENKINS

The oldest child of Mansfield and Patience Jenkins was our next in line ancestor, John Jenkins. John was born about 1734 in Richmond County, Virginia and married Mary around 1757. Mary's parents may have been named Hoard but that has not yet been proven. John came to North Carolina after his father's death with his mother, brothers, and sisters. It is conjectured they came after selling their land in Virginia in 1763. This land had been in the family for nearly 100 years. They settled in what was Bute County (now Warren County, N.C.). Sometime prior to May 1778, John and his family left the others and migrated to Orange County, N.C. (presently Chatham Co.).

The earliest record of John's presence in Chatham County is found in the following deed dated 10 Nov 1787, three years before his death:

This same piece of property was sold by the son of John Jinkins who was also named John on 18 Feb 1795. John Jenkins, Sr.'s will stipulates that all his land go to his wife Mary until her death and then that it be divided between his sons John, Thomas, and Mansfield or their survivors. Since we find John Jenkins selling his portion of the land in 1795, we can assume that his mother Mary died between 1790 and 1795. The following is a transcription of that deed:

I, John Jinkins, of the County of Orange and State of North Carolina, being weak and sick in body but having my senses and memory perfectly, do call to mind the uncertainty of life and certainty of death, doth constitute and testify this to be my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following:

In premise I give and bequeath unto my daughters, Nancy Fennel and Patty Allen those things which they have had of me already, also unto my son Sanford Jinkins, the one hundred acres of land which I have had run off for him; to them and their heirs forever.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Mary Jinkins the residue of my estate whether real or personal during her life, for the use of paying my debts, raising my children and her own maintenance and at her death if any of my land is remaining to be equally divided among my sons John Thomas and Mansfield Jinkins or their survivors of them to them and their heirs forever.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my daughter Betsy, Polly, Patience and Catherine Jinkins the residue of my estate at their mother's death to be equally divided among them and their heirs forever.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Polly Higgerson a thousand weight of inspected gold to be paid by my executors when she shall arrive to the age of eighteen years to her and her heirs forever.

Item: I do hereby constitute and appoint my loving wife Mary Jinkins, my friend William Merritt and Joseph Fennel Executors to this my Last Will and Testament and also invest them with the power of selling anything of my affects for the discharging of my debts if required without going to any unnecessary charges of expense by order of court or any other way that will prove tenacious to my estate or creditors. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of February, 1790.

Notice that in his will he made provision for all his children and named them. He also wrote his will in such a way as to eliminate the need for his wife, Mary, to make a will. We have not been able to find either a will or estate papers for Mary. John and Mary were the parents of ten children and their son Sanford Jenkins was our next in line ancestor.

CHAPTER VI

SANFORD AND DELILAH BARBEE JENKINS

Sanford was born about 1767, probably in Granville County. The book, HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA, Vol. VI, pages 164-165, in a biographic sketch of Joseph J. Jenkins who was a great-grandson of Sanford, says the following about Sanford: "Sanford Jenkins removed to Chatham County and bought a tract of unimproved wilderness in Williams Township, and on the land which he cleared and improved spent the rest of his days. He married Elizabeth Barbee." Sanford married Delilah "Delia" Barbee in 1789. She was the daughter of Joseph and Mary Barbee, and Joseph Barbee was the son of John and Ann Miller Barbee.

In John Jenkins will found in Chapter V, he made provision for his children to receive land after the death of his wife, Mary. The following is a copy of the land transaction carried out by his executor in which Sanford, his son, receives the land left to him in his father's will:

Records in the Chatham County Courthouse show the following: Chatham County Court appointed Sanford as a member of a jury to "lay off a new road from Major Parker's old place to cross New Hope Creek and hit Gray Barbee's road in May of 1791." The children of Joseph Barbee named Sanford Jenkins and his wife Delilah in a petition to the Court on 12 April 1813. Sanford Jenkins bought 427 2/3 acres of land near Fearrington's Mill on 3 Apr 1813 from Christopher Barbee and Mark Barbee (Chatham Co. Deed Book T page 183). Sanford witnesses the will of Gray Barbee, his brother-in-law, 1 Aug 1829. Sanford was a buyer at the estate sale of Mordecai Barbee on 26 Oct. 1830.

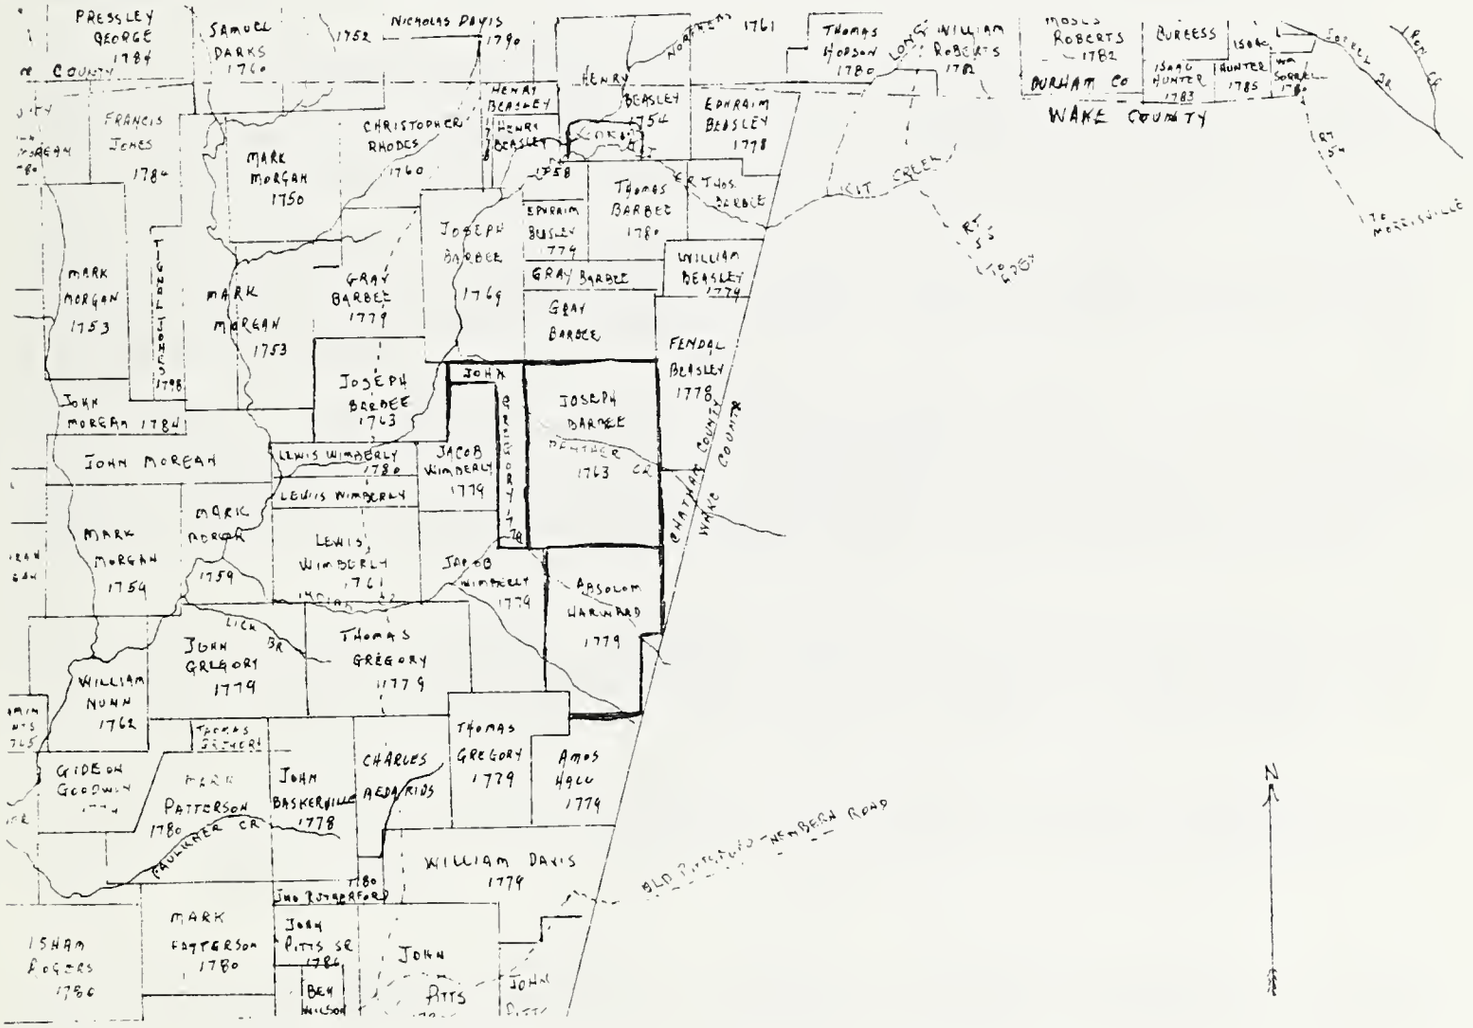

Figure 4. Land Grant Map showing land grants to early settlers of Old Orange County that later became Chatham County. Notice the Barbee, Gregory and Beasley tracts.

The will of Sanford Jenkins dated February 1837 and probated in August of 1837 named his wife Delia and their children. He was also especially nice to some lady named Elizabeth Curtis and refers to "the negroes he got of her". It is not known how he "got them of her". Sanford was a large land owner and had many slaves.

Test. N. A. Stedman, C.C.C.

The children of Sanford Jenkins were: Joseph John, our ancestor, who married Marina Herndon, daughter of Elias A. Herndon and Mary Hopson; Elizabeth B. Jenkins who married Stanford Herndon, son of Elias A. Herndon & Mary Hopson; Martha A. "Patsy" who married Franklin O'Kelly, son of William O'Kelly and Elizabeth Merritt; Mary M. "Polly" who married Henry Williams, son of George Williams and Delphia Kelly; Delilah C. "Delia" who to the best of our knowledge remained unmarried; Nancy who married Reuben Herndon, son of Aquilla Herndon and Mary Moore, and a cousin of Marina and Stanford Herndon; Penina W. "Penny" who married Marmaduke Williams, son of George Williams and Delphia Kelly; Quintina who remained unmarried; Hasky B. who remained unmarried; and Sanford Jenkins, Jr. who married and it is conjectured his wife's first name was Elizabeth. Joseph John and his sister, Elizabeth B. Jenkins, married brothers and sisters and Mary M. and Penina W. Jenkins married brothers.

CHAPTER VII

JOSEPH JOHN AND MARINA HERNDON JENKINS

Our next in line ancestor was Joseph John Jenkins who married Marina Herndon. Joseph John was born in 1801 and was probably named for his grandparents, Joseph Barbee and John Jenkins. He married Marina "Reany" 29 Nov 1823 in Orange County. She was born in 1806. A copy of their marriage bond is shown here:

Joseph and Reany lived near Martha's Chapel Church in Williams Township, Chatham County. In the will of Joseph's father, Sanford, he bequeathed "the Barbee tract of land whereon he now lives" and certain personal property to Joseph. Joseph was fondly referred to as either "Major" or "Jody John" and received his mail in 1860 at Grove post office. Joseph died in 1886 and Reany died in 1874. They are buried directly behind Martha's Chapel Church and as you can see from the picture on the next page, their tombstones, although fallen over with time, can be clearly read.

Since the earliest records of Martha's Chapel Church have not yet been located, we can only assume that this is the church they attended and how active they were can not be ascertained at this time. We know that many of their children continued on at Martha's Chapel and took leadership roles there. A later Chapter titled "Martha's Chapel Christian Church" gives us our earliest record to date of the involvement of the Jenkins' family with the church.

Figure 6. Tombstone Martha's Chapel Christian Church - Joseph John and Marina H. Jenkins

THE HERNDON CONNECTION TO THE JENKINS FAMILY

The Herndon and Jenkins families intermarried numerous times, therefore, a few notes and the genealogy of the Herndon/Jenkins families is in order. The descendants of Joseph John Jenkins and his wife Marina Herndon also descend from Benjamin Herndon who married Lydia Massey. It is thought that Benjamin Herndon was the son of Richard Herndon of Caroline County, Virginia and his second wife. We do not know her name. Benjamin Herndon appears in Orange County, N.C. in February 1770. He bought several items at the estate sale of John Daniel; items that would be used to begin housekeeping such as knives and forks. Benjamin married Lydia Massey, the daughter of Abraham Massey and Gwen Lewis, but we do not know when. Perhaps it was about the time he was buying knives and forks at John Daniel's estate sale.

We do know that Benjamin had at least one brother, David Herndon who married Frances Pierce first and later Elizabeth ___?___. Benjamin had two sisters, Elizabeth Herndon who married Major Lea and Fannie Herndon who married Thomas Marcom.

Several references are made to both Abraham Massey and Benjamin Herndon in the Orange County Court Minutes. Most of these references relate to the establishment of roads in Orange County.

On 8 Jul 1778, Benjamin applied for a grant of 616 acres "on the waters of New Hope, called Crooked Creek". His application was approved and he received the land 13 Mar 1780. Abraham Massey also received a grant of 640 acres with basically the same description at the same time. Benjamin also received another grant of 31 acres adjoining his other lands 30 Oct 1786. From these grants, Elias Herndon, his son received 200 acres.

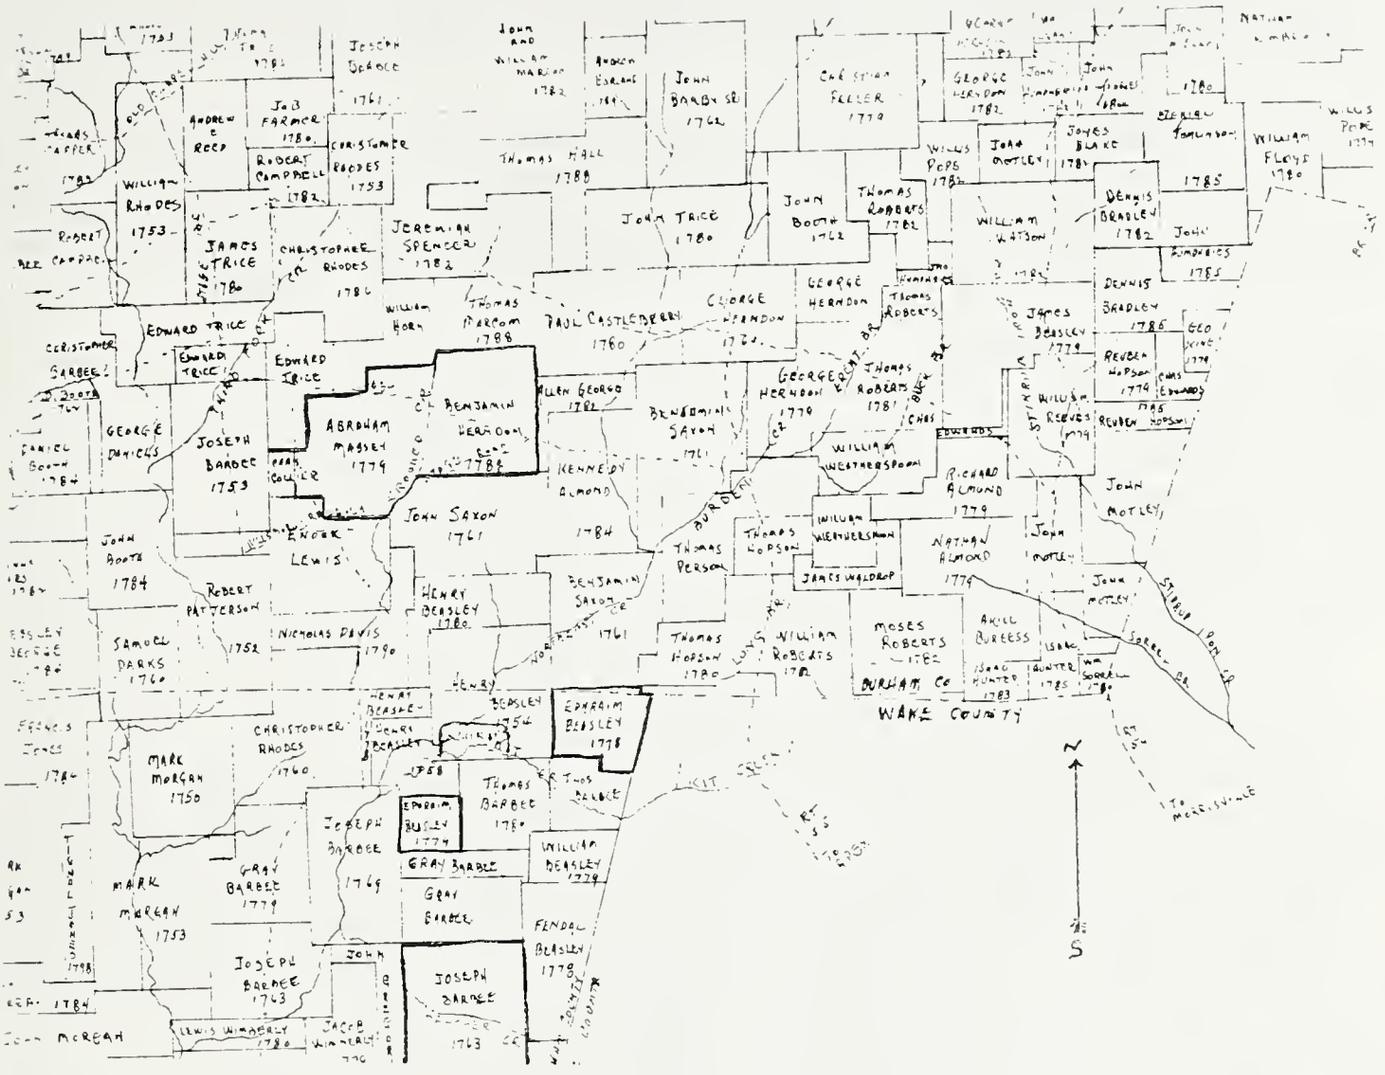

Figure 7. Land Grant Map showing Location of property belonging to Benjamin Herndon and Abraham Massey that later became property of Elias Herndon.

Since the 1820 Census doesn't show Benjamin's wife, Lydia, it is conjectured she died between 1810, the last census showing her, and 1820. Benjamin Herndon died in 1823. Benjamin and Lydia were the parents of Elias Herndon who married Mary Hopson, William Herndon who married Hannah Hutchins, Tapley Herndon who married Nellis Hutchins, and Aquilla Herndon who married Mary Moore.

Elias Herndon was born around 1772 in Orange County, N.C. and he died there in 1828. He was married to Mary "Polly" Hopson. Her will is printed here:

Herndon of the County of Orange and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my Last Will and Testament, in manner and form following: that is to say:

First that my executor (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, and pay all funeral expenses, together with my just debts, howsoever and to whomsoever owing, out of the moneys that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

And I give and bequeath unto Berry Mason one dollar and it is my will and desire that all the above named property or all that may be on hand at the time of my death shall be sold and divided according to this my Last Will and Testament.

And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend, John Mason, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my Last Will and Testament, according to the true intents and meanings of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I the said Mary Herndon, do hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of September A.D. 1843.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Mary Herndon, to be her Last Will and Testament in the presence of us who at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereunto.

Mary Herndon (Seal)

Elias Herndon was usually called "Eli" and was referred to by that name even in the Orange County Court Minutes. Eli did not leave a will and an administrator, John A. Mason who was his son-in-law, was appointed to settle his estate.

The children of Eli and Mary Herndon were Augustine Herndon who married Nancy McGehee, Standford Herndon who married Elizabeth B. Jenkins, daughter of Sanford Jenkins, Sr., Elizabeth Herndon who married John A. Mason, Marina "Reany" Herndon who married Joseph John Jenkins and were our ancestors, Matilda Herndon who married William George, Mary Herndon who married Littleberry Mason, and Martha Herndon who married Ezekiel George.

Aquilla Herndon, the brother of Elias Herndon, had a son named Reuben Herndon who was born in 1807 and married Nancy Jenkins, the daughter of Sanford Jenkins, Sr.

These are only a few of the Herndon/Jenkins connections. If we follow the family lines further out, we would probably find many more.

Joseph and Marina gave 100 acres of land to their son Thomas Mansfield Jenkins in 1869 and 101 acres to Elias Wesley Jenkins in 1871 and 100 acres to Augustus Samuel in 1858. Those deeds are as follows:

CHAPTER VIII

ELIAS WESLEY JENKINS AND HIS TWO WIVES

1ST EDITH PENNY BYRD
2ND NANCY CATHERINE KELLY

Born 4 May 1842, Elias Wesley Jenkins was probably named for his maternal grandfather Elias Herndon. He married first to Edith "Edie" Penny Bird 11 Jan 1877. She died giving birth to their only child, Edith Caroline "Callie" Jenkins in 1878. Callie's daughter, Madge Nicholson remembers her mother telling about the ladies of the local area being concerned as to how her father would take care of her and held a prayer meeting to pray that she too would die. She was raised by her mother's sisters and lived to be eighty-nine years old. Isn't it great all of our prayers aren't answered?

Figure 8. Edith Caroline "Callie" Jenkins Nicholson was the daughter of Elias Wesley and Edith Penny Bird Jenkins.

We have not been able to locate the grave of Edith Penny Bird but it is believed she is buried at Martha's Chapel Church and most probably directly behind and to the side of the church. There are many graves there but it is now difficult, if not impossible in many cases, to tell where they are.

After the death of his first wife in 1878, Wes remarried to Nancy "Nan" Catherine Kelly, the daughter of Bervin Kelly and Elizabeth Hopson, on 13 Jan 1884 and they were the parents of three children. They lived in Chatham County, with Wes being active at Martha's Chapel Christian Church. Wes and Nan are buried there inside a wrought iron fence along with their son Wavie Loy Jenkins. Loy was killed in a motorcycle accident and at the time of his death was engaged to marry two different young ladies. Both ladies came to his funeral dressed in black to mourn his passing. One of them never married.

As pointed out in the previous chapter, Elias Wesley served in the Civil War and the following verifies his service:

WAR SERVICE OF ELIAS WESLEY JENKINS

Source: N.C. TROOPS 1861-1865 - A ROSTER, Vol IV, INFANTRY, page 373

"Jenkins, E.W. Private
Resided in Chatham County and enlisted in Wake County on October 28, 1864 for the war. Hospitalized at Richmond, Va., with a 'wound' and was captured in Hospital on April 3, 1865. Place and date wounded not reported. Confined at Libby Prison, Richmond, until transferred to Newport News on June 30, 1865. Released at Newport News on June 30, 1865 after taking Oath of Allegiance."

The "wound" referred to above happened when he lost his right eye. There have been many stories passed down about Elias Wesley's Civil War service and a few are repeated here:

"After the war, transportation home was not provided for the soldiers so Elias Wesley and three of his comrades had to walk from Newport News, Virginia to their home in Chatham County. They had to beg for food and not everyone was sympathetic to the soldiers and often they went hungry on their journey home. One of the soldiers was wounded and Elias Wesley and the other comrade had to all but carry him during the journey. At one time, they became so hungry they stopped in a field and picked the corn out of the cow dung, washed it off in a stream and ate it to keep from starving."

"When Elias Wesley finally got home, he didn't have a uniform and all he had on was his union suit and it was so infested with lice that he was made to stand in the chimney jam and take off his union suit which was burned. He then got into get into a big tub of water in the back yard and was scrubbed with a brush to rid him of the lice before he could go into the house."

Many other interesting stories about Elias Wesley Jenkins and his brothers have been passed down through the years and I only wish time and space permitted the printing of more of them. On the next page is a picture of Elias Wesley at a Civil War Reunion.

It has been thought one of Wes' brothers or cousins went down on the Titanic. He was a gambler and often changed his name but the last communication received from him said he was sailing on the Titanic.

Wes' second wife, Nan, was the daughter of Burvin/Burbin Kelly and Elizabeth Hopson and Burbin was the son of Joseph Kelly.

Markers were not erected at the graves of Elias Wesley or Nancy Catherine Kelly Jenkins until 1983 when several of their grandchildren and great grandchildren went in together and had markers placed there. In 1985, again many of the descendants pooled their resources and had the wrought-iron fence around their graves at Martha's Chapel Christian Church Cemetery refinished and the headstone of Wavie Loy Jenkins straightened.

THE REST OF THE STORY

Wavie Loy Jenkins was the youngest son of Elias Wesley and Nancy Catherine Kelly Jenkins and he was born January 28, 1890 and died in a motorcycle accident May 6, 1918. His death certificate has not been located at this time. He was unmarried but at the time of his death trying to decide which one of two different women he wanted to marry. Following is his Estate Settlment:

CHAPTER X

MARTHA'S CHAPEL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

About 1804, Martha's Chapel Christian Church was formed in Chatham, N.C. It is located on the corner of Farrington Road and Martha's Chapel Road.

Immediately behind the church is the cemetery where generation after generation of our ancestors are buried. A small, dedicated congregation of about thirty to forty people still meet there to worship and maintain the church and grounds. The earliest records of the church have not been found but most records starting shortly after the Civil War are preserved. Within these church records we find the names and a record of participation of many of our ancestors. The Jenkins', Herndon's, and Kelly's are all found in these records. There are charts that show their record of attendance as well as their participation as Sunday School Superintendents, Deacons, scholars (pupils), etc.

CHAPTER XI

JENKINS FAMILY GENEALOGY

Each descendant of William and Elizabeth Skelderman Jenkins has been assigned a number. The first digit is "J" which designates Jenkins Family descendant. The second number is "1" which designates which of the early immigrants to America we are tracing. The next number is "A" which designates he was the oldest child is his family. From this point on the digits will be letters designating the order of birth within a persons' family. The last digit in parenthesis will always be a number which will tell you which generation removed from the original ancestor this person belongs to. Therefore, the number J1ABA (3) is translated to be the third generation down from William and Elizabeth Jenkins, and will be the first son born to the second son of William Jenkins, or in other words this person is John Jenkins, the first child of Mansfield Jenkins who was the second child of William Jenkins.
